Ashford Farmers Market Opening Day

Ashford Farmers Market will begin its 4th season on the first Sunday in June (June 6) at Pompey Hollow Park off RT 44 in Ashford across the street from the Town offices. Opening day will feature an educational hands-on program for children ages 4-10 by Eleanor Provencal, coordinator of Ag in the Classroom. There will be activities for children, posters and books available featuring information about chickens. The market will run from June through October every Sunday from 10AM-1PM. In addition to fresh produce and fruits, we will have gluten-free baked goods, massage, and herbal products. Our Companions, domestic animal sanctuary, will be publicizing their neutering program. Join us for delicious food, educational programs and great fun.

The Ashford Farmers Market is located at Pompey Hollow Park just off of Route 44 in the Warrenville section of Ashford. From the intersection of Routes 89 and 44 in Ashford, go west one-tenth of a mile on Route 44 and take a right on Tremko Lane. From the intersection of Routes 74 and 44 in Ashford, go east one mile on Route 44 and take a left onto Tremko Lane.

The market is open from 10a.m. to 1 p.m. every Sunday (rain or shine) through October.

"One of the top ten things to do in New England this weekend."
 — The Boston Globe

We're currently on holiday. Our summer market opens on June 5 at the Nathan Hale Homestead!

The Coventry Regional Farmers' Market is like a country fair every Sunday... the old-fashioned kind, with farmers, produce, freshly baked pies, sparkling jers of preserves and pickles, handmade goods, and fiddlers. New England Travel Magazine calls ours "Connecticut's preeminent farmers' market." Surrounded by over 500 acres of forest and picturesque rural landscape, the Hale Farm provides a gracious backdrop for this vibrant market. June through October, it's the largest and most diverse farmers' market in Connecticut.
